

Williamson College Graduate Student Reference Form

Form Instructions: First-time applications require two recommendations using the Williamson College Graduate Student Reference Form. Re-applicants are required to submit one new recommendation. If you have been working full-time for at least six months, one recommendation should be from your current supervisor and the other a spiritual life reference. If you cannot secure a recommendation from your direct supervisor, please submit a statement of explanation along with your application. The second recommendation should be from either a former immediate supervisor or from another professional associate, senior to you, who can share their insights on your leadership potential. Family members may not be used as References.
